

CHAPTER OXVII.

An Act to define the boundary lines of Chippewa county, and to provide for its organization.

March. 9, 1867

SECTION 1.—Defines boundaries of Chippewa county,

2.—Declared to be an organized county.

3.—County officers to give notice of election on proposition to change county linea.

4.—County officer to canvass votes within certain time.

5.—When act shall take effect.

*Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:*Defines boundary lines

SECTION 1. The boundary line of Chippewa county is hereby established, and shall hereafter be as follows: Beginning in the middle of the main channel of the Minnesota river, on the range line between ranges thirty-seven and thirty-eight; thence north to the northeast corner of township one hundred and twenty-two; thence west to the northwest corner of township one hundred and twenty-two, of range forty, west; thence south to the main channel of the Minnesota river; thence down said river to the place of beginning.

Organized

SEC. 2. The county of Chippewa is hereby declared an organized county, and the county seat thereof temporarily located at Chippewa City.

Duty of county officers

SEC. 3. At the time of giving notice of the next general election, it shall be the duty of the officers of Renville county, required by law to give notice of such election, to give notice in like manner, that at said election a vote will be taken on the question of changing the boundary lines of Renville county, in accordance with the provisions of this act. At said election, the voters of Renville county, in favor of the change proposed by this act, shall have distinctly written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, on their ballots: "For change of boundary lines of Renville county." And those opposed to such change:

"Against change of boundary lines of Renville county;" and returned to the same officers by the judges of election, as votes for state officers.

SEC. 4. The county officer to whom the returns are made, shall, within twenty days after said election, canvass the votes returned for and against the change of boundary lines, and shall forthwith certify the result of such canvass to the governor, who, if it appears that the majority of votes in said county, on the question of changing the boundary lines, are in favor of such change, shall make proclamation thereof, by causing to be published in a newspaper in said county, or in Brown county, that the change proposed by this act has been ratified and adopted by a majority of the electors of said county.

Returns to be canvassed

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the ratification and adoption of the proposed change, as aforesaid.

Approved March 9, 1867.
